WELCOME

We are delighted to welcome you to Shockout. For many years we have offered a range of dance and creative arts training that meets the needs of students who want to enhance their career prospects in the dance and creative arts industries. We don't look to enrol an ensemble of perfection, we look for rawness of expression, an indomitable spirit, the willingness to learn, and that special something that sets them apart from the rest. Our programmes build on these themes that enable students to benefit from the combined expertise, faculty and industry standard facilities of Shockout Arts.

Being able to provide our students with the best possible progression route is highly important to us. All our programmes are driven and informed by the needs and trends of the industry to ensure our students are fully prepared in every area to sustain career longevity. As a result of their hard work, our past and present students have performed with some of the biggest names in the dance and performing arts industry in a wide variety of jobs internationally.

When students graduate from Shockout, we aim for them to be employable and versatile artists in their own right as well as intelligent creative thinkers who are fully prepared for an ever changing and dynamic sector.

Principal

“ WE LOOK FOR RAWNESS OF EXPRESSION ”

OUR ETHOS

VISION

Our vision at Shockout is to cultivate a generation of passionate, determined, and versatile artists — equipped with both technical mastery and a holistic skill set that enables them to confidently realise their creative aspirations. We strive to be a leading hub of artistic innovation and longevity, where graduates are prepared not just to enter the industry, but to shape its future — leaving a lasting legacy of excellence, adaptability and creative leadership.

We envision:

Artists who are career-ready, confident and resilient in a fast-evolving global arts landscape.

A thriving community where creative exploration, mentorship and collaboration drive artistic growth.

A legacy of graduates whose work influences culture, performance, and creative thinking on both national and international stages.

ETHOS

At Shockout, we are dedicated to nurturing raw talent, individuality and artistic excellence within a dynamic, inclusive environment. Our ethos centres on delivering practical, industry-driven training that empowers individuals to express creativity, build technical skill, and develop their unique artistic voice.

We champion a culture where every student — regardless of background or ability — is given equal opportunity to grow, explore and thrive. Through immersive programmes and real-world creative platforms, we inspire confidence and prepare artists to pursue lasting, impactful careers in the performing arts.

Key principles of our ethos include:

Creativity & Individuality:

Encouraging bold expression and personal artistic identity.

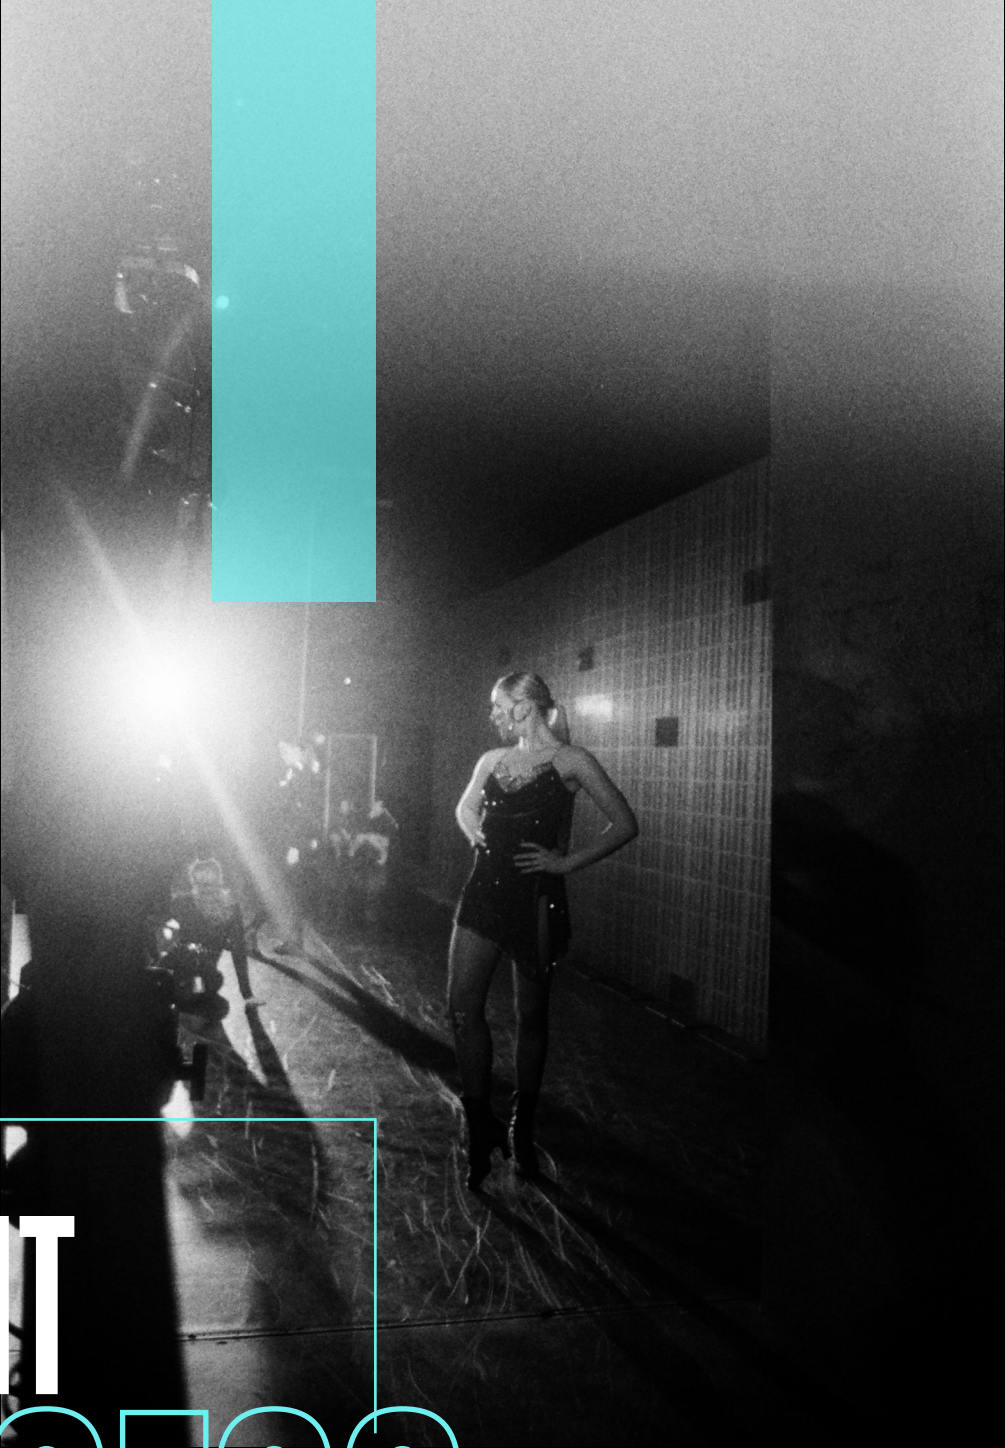

Practical, Professional Training: Real-world focus with curriculum shaped by industry trends.

Inclusivity:

Equal opportunity for all, championing diversity in art and education.

Supportive Community: A culture where collaboration, wellbeing and student voice enrich learning.

A STEP ABOVE THE REST

STUDENT SUCCESS

Being able to provide our students with the best possible progression route is highly important to us .

As a result of their hard work, our past and present students have performed and choreographed for some of the biggest names in the dance and performing arts industry.

HE TEACHING
QUALIFICATION”

The PGCE course at Shockout Arts has enabled me to translate the knowledge I’ve gained through years of being a professional dancer in to a practical, relevant and widely recognised HE teaching qualification.

My performance career started as principal dancer in Bally’s Las Vegas from which I then moved to the Moulin Rouge in Paris and now work for the top tier of Royal Entertainments for RCCL premiering their new products and take out shows.

MA DANCE [SPECIALIST TITLE]

Award

Master of Arts (MA)

for further entry requirements.

If you're experienced within the dance industry and passionate about inspiring the next generation of performers and creatives, then this 1 year course offers you the skills and knowledge needed to teach ages 14 and above in this demanding and ever-evolving sector, alongside developing and nurturing you own creative identity as a teacher. This PGCE (M) course is 120 credits at master's level (HE7), demonstrating your ability to work independently at a high level in the field of education. 90 credits at HE7 can be transferred to a full master's award, depending on the specialist masters pathway.

This is a pre-service Initial Teacher Education (ITE) course – you don't need prior experience of teaching or current employment in education. Through a combination of traditional study and work-based learning, you'll be able to explore the key theories and techniques of teaching, learning and assessment. We'll support you as you discover how to apply these in practice, how you can mould them to the teaching of dance and how they link into current research in education and dance education.

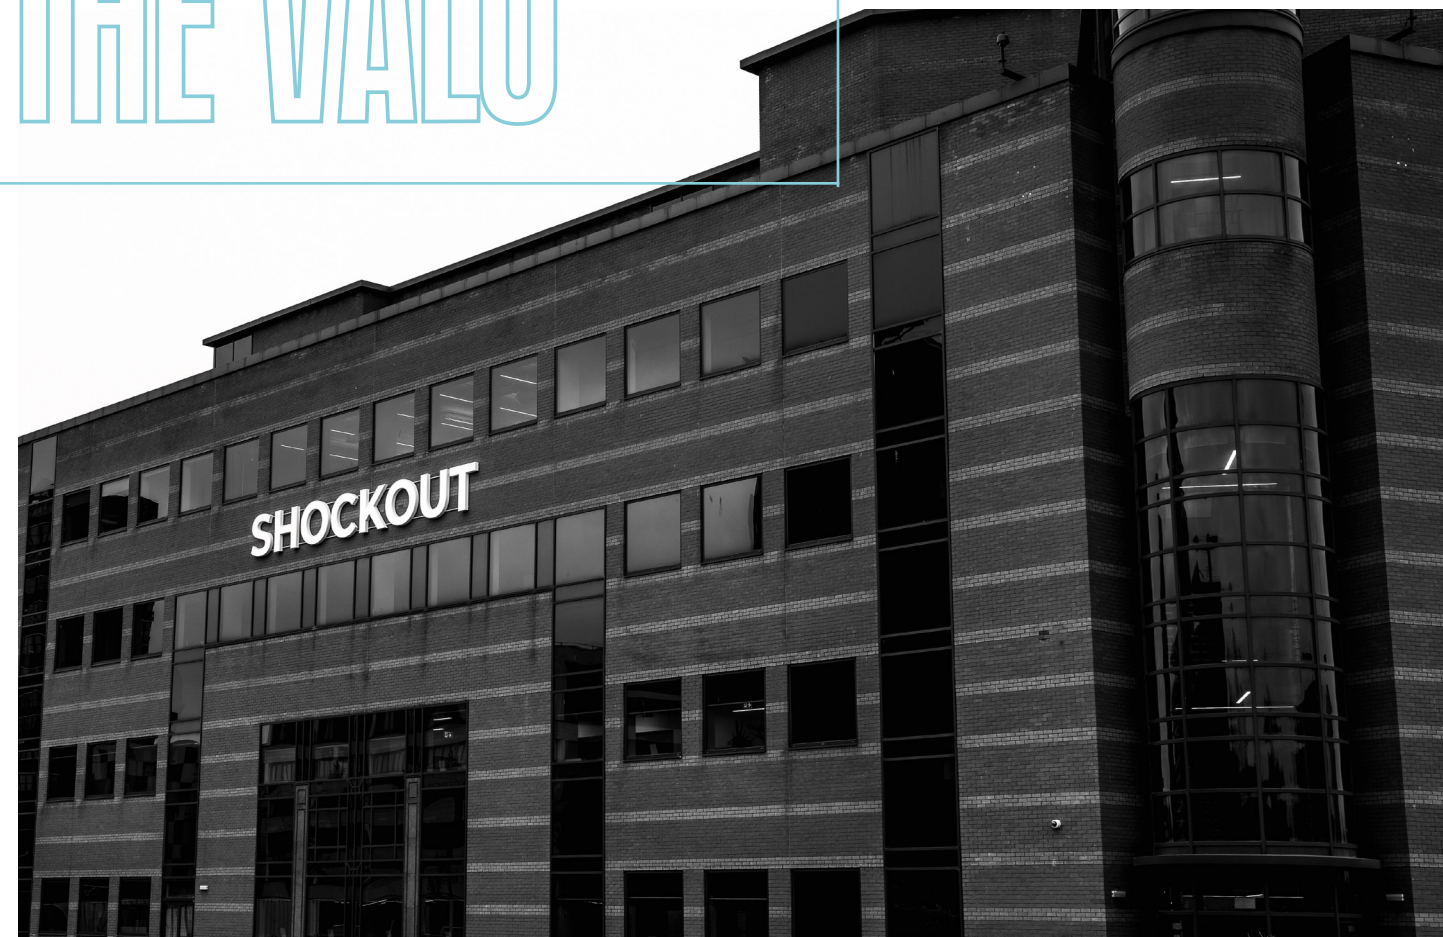

In addition to working in HE, FE colleges, sixth form colleges and schools there are also significant opportunities to work in a range of other educational sectors. The work-based learning sector ensures people are ready for employment and have the latest skills. Delivered in partnership with The University of Bolton, this programme meets the requirement recognised by the Society for Education & Training (SET) and upon successful completion of this course, students may undertake professional formation in order to be awarded Qualified Teacher Learning and Skills (QTLS) status by SET.

OUR CAMPUSES

Shockout Valo Building

SHOCKOUT: THE VALO

Introducing Shockout Valo, a vibrant haven for creative arts students in Manchester, standing at the forefront of a fresh and purpose-driven approach to creative arts.

Positioned conveniently beside the Old Trafford metro stop, this forward-thinking space features 12 purpose-built studios, setting the stage for our students' artistic journey. The intimate theatre, with a seating capacity for 100, is the perfect canvas for avant-garde performances, breaking away from convention.

Innovative collaboration spaces, including modern meeting rooms and versatile breakout areas, redefine the student experience.

A classroom enhances skill development and knowledge sharing, while communal kitchen areas inject a sense of community and camaraderie. With its purposeful spaces, parking and strategic location, Shockout Valo stands as a beacon of innovation, providing a transformative space for the next wave of performing arts enthusiasts to explore and create.

STUDIOS

At Shockout Valo, our purpose-built facility encompasses a total of 12 studios, meticulously designed to be the epitome of functionality and comfort for dance and musical theatre students. Each studio is equipped with full-length mirrors, ensuring a clear and comprehensive view for students to refine their techniques. The sprung flooring adds a responsive surface, enhancing the overall dance experience. The studios boast soundproofing, providing a private and immersive space for creative exploration without external distractions.

Additionally, the integrated sound systems in each of the 12 studios offers state of the art audio, allowing students to synchronize their movements with music effortlessly. The inclusion of air conditioning further elevates the comfort level, ensuring a pleasant atmosphere conducive to focused and inspiring artistic endeavors. These meticulously designed studios prioritize both the technical aspects of performance and the well-being of the artists within, creating an environment that harmonizes functionality, luxury, and optimal sound quality.

CREATIVITY MEETS COLLABORATION

CREATIVE & COLLABORATIVE SPACES

Beyond the artistic, the Shockout Valo Building demonstrates its dedication to collaboration by providing contemporary meeting rooms and versatile spaces. These areas are thoughtfully crafted to cultivate a culture of communication and idea exchange among students, faculty, and industry professionals.

MEETING ROOMS

Shockout Valo Building dedicates itself to collaboration with contemporary meeting rooms. Ideal for planning, strategizing, and networking, these spaces enhance the overall Shockout Valo experience, fostering project discussions, brainstorming sessions, and collaborative initiatives.

BREAKOUT AREAS

Designed for modern aesthetics and comfort, our breakout areas provide an ideal setting for relaxation, meetings, and creative discussions. As integral to Shockout Valo, these zones enrich the environment, seamlessly intertwining collaboration with artistic development.

STUDYING IN MANCHESTER

Manchester is a top choice for students: it ranks 29th in the QS Best Student Cities 2019 and 24th on the year before. It is home to a diverse set of people from all walks of life, making this city an interesting one day or night. Manchester's welcoming and unique atmosphere celebrates and inspires the arts, culture, music, theatre, and so much more.

It is a busy yet friendly city that has a thriving music and nightlife scene. Many bars and clubs are scattered across the city centre. Whether you're up for a chill evening with some live music or ready to dance the night away, there's a place for you. Manchester also has a rich history with music, producing many internationally and locally successful artists. The city also hosts various festivals throughout the year such as the Manchester International Festival and Parklife.
